Book Chronicles 100 Years of TSCPA History

DALLAS, TX (July 7, 2015) – Texas Society of CPAs (TSCPA), a professional organization representing Texas CPAs, announces the availability of its 100-year history book, entitled "100 Years The Texas Society of CPAs" which chronicles a century of historical successes from the individuals who battled to establish and protect its professional identity.

The honorary book commemorates milestones and exemplary leadership of those who have spent a century creating a profession committed to ethics, competence and the public good. Available in hard copy, the history book is immediately available for $100 per copy.

Based on an excerpt from the book, "The 100 anniversary of the TSCPA calls for more than a dutiful recording of the various milestones and data that mark such a long-lived organization. The real TSCPA story belongs to the people who swelled its ranks, the march of accountants who spent a century creating a profession committed to ethics, competence and the public good."

To purchase a copy of the "100 Years the Texas Society of CPAs" history book please visit: <http://secure.tscpa.org/tscpa100/index.asp>.
