Texas Society of CPAs Offers Online Resources for Texas Taxpayers

TSCPA's Tax Talk section on ValueYourMoney.org offers articles, advice and FAQs

DALLAS (Feb. 18, 2015) — With the April 15 tax deadline quickly approaching, many Texans are beginning to feel the stress of filing their tax returns correctly and on time. To help taxpayers through this year's filing season, the Texas Society of CPAs (TSCPA) has compiled an online list of FAQs, articles, tax tips and other resources at www.ValueYourMoney.org, under the Tax Talk section.

Taxpayers will find information on e-filing, claiming dependents, deductions, avoiding an IRS audit and much, much more. The Tax Talk section also includes information on self-employment taxes and deductible medical expenses taxpayers can't afford to overlook.

In addition to tax resources, ValueYourMoney.org features personal finance topics for consumers in all stages of life, from childhood to retirement and everything in between. Consumers are encouraged to sign up for TSCPA's free, monthly personal finance e-newsletter, Take Off! which features articles and advice on saving, budgeting, tax planning and more.
