ARTICLE IV - LOCAL CHAPTERS

- (1) The state of Texas shall be divided into chapters determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall set minimum standards for the existence of a chapter provided, however, no more than one chapter may be organized within one county. A chapter, once created, shall remain until changed by the Board of Directors.
- (2) A member shall be a member of the chapter in which the member maintains his/her principal office unless the member specifies the chapter of his/her principal residence. A member may become a member of an additional chapter if accepted to membership by action of that chapter. A member's whose residence or principal office is out-of-state or out-of- country and honorary members may maintain membership in the Society and shall not be required to be a member of a chapter.
- (3) A properly organized local chapter of the Society may exercise customary functions of the Society that are not reserved by these Bylaws to the officers, Executive Board, Board of Directors or the Society as a whole, but is without the power by its own actions to bind or obligate the Society in any manner.
- (4) Bylaws of the local chapter shall not conflict with those of the Society, and any changes therein shall take effect upon approval of the Executive Board of the Society. The bylaws of each local chapter shall provide for:
  - (a) a fiscal year coinciding with that of the Society;
  - (b) election of officers prior to February 1 each year, but tenure of office to coincide with that of the officers of the Society;
  - (c) membership limited to members of the Society in good standing; and

- (6) Local chapters may be separately incorporated provided that the proposed articles of incorporation of such chapters and any proposed amendments thereto receive the approval of the Board of Directors of the Society prior to their being filed with the Secretary of State. Further, such articles of incorporation must provide for full and complete compliance by the chapter with the Bylaws of the Society as they relate to the local chapters.

The 36 directors-at-large elected by the Society shall be elected for three-year terms except as necessary to maintain a general pattern of one-third of the at-large directors' terms expiring each year. The entitlement of the local chapters to extra directors shall be based upon membership at May 31 of the previous fiscal year. The Society shall notify the chapters of the number of extra directors to be elected and the term of office for each so that a general pattern of three-year terms, with one-third of the elected directors' terms expiring each year, will be preserved so far as is practical. - (4) Vacancies, however created, among the directors-at-large shall be filled at the next election of officers and directors by electing a director for the unexpired term. A vacancy among the extra directors elected by the chapters shall be promptly filled for the unexpired term by action of the respective chapter.
- (5) If any director elected pursuant to the provisions of Section (2)(f) of this Article changes status such that the director qualifies under the provisions of any other provision of Section (2) then a vacancy shall be deemed to have been created.
- (6) The Board of Directors shall meet in conjunction with the annual meeting. It shall also meet at such other times and places as may be specified by the chairman or whenever convened by call of at least 50 of its members or by a majority of the Executive Board. #### ARTICLE VIII - TRIAL BOARD AND COMMITTEES

- (1) There shall be a nationwide Trial Board to adjudicate disciplinary charges against members of TSCPA pursuant to Article III, Section (5). The Trial Board is empowered to adopt rules consistent with actions of the AICPA Council, governing procedure in cases heard by any hearing panel, and in connection with any application for review of a decision of a hearing panel. Enrolled firms shall arrange and schedule their reviews in compliance with administrative procedures and policies established by the Society and shall cooperate with the Society in all matters related to their review. The Peer Review Committee shall develop policies that specify what actions by firms are considered a failure to cooperate and shall recommend such policies to the Executive Board for adoption and inclusion in the Volunteer Policies and Procedures Manual.
- (3) The Executive Board in its discretion may drop a firm's enrollment in a Society-approved practice-monitoring program prior to the commencement of the firm's peer review if the Peer Review Committee recommends dropping such firm for failing to cooperate in the administration of the program.
- (4) The Executive Board in its discretion may terminate a firm's enrollment in a Society approved practice monitoring program, or take such other action as the Executive Board may elect, if the Peer Review Committee recommends termination of the firm for failing to cooperate in the execution or administration of the firm's peer review after the review has commenced.

The Executive Board's termination of enrollment as described in (4) above shall be effective without a hearing for such firm, unless the Executive Board, in its sole discretion, decides to grant a hearing. A firm's termination of enrollment in a Society-approved practice monitoring program will automatically result in termination of membership of all Society members employed by that firm if such members are no longer in compliance with subsection (1) of this Article.

- (5) All terminations of mandatory enrollment in the Society-approved practice-monitoring programs shall be reported to the Society membership in one or more periodicals published by the Society.
- (6) Any firm headquartered outside Texas that is enrolled in and in full compliance with the AICPA Peer Review Program shall be deemed to be in compliance with the Society-approved practice-monitoring program and, therefore, shall be exempt from the administrative requirements and procedures of Section (2) hereof and exempt from the provisions of Section (3) hereof.

TSCPA Code of Professional Ethics

APPROVED BY:
TSCPA Membership

EFFECTIVE DATE:
June 30, 2006

PREAMBLE

The reliance of the public and business community on the professional services of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants' ("Society") members imposes on its members certain obligations. These obligations include, but are not limited to, a member's responsibility to: maintain independence of thought and action; strive continuously to improve one's professional skills; observe, where applicable, the pronouncements of various regulatory and professional standards bodies; promote sound and informative financial reporting; hold the client's affairs in confidence; uphold the standards of the profession; and maintain high standards of personal and professional conduct in all matters affecting fitness to render professional services.

In recognition of these responsibilities, the Code of Professional Ethics ("Code") set forth herein has been adopted by the Society to help regulate the conduct of its members.

TSCPA RULES OF CONDUCT

The Code of the Society shall consist of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) Code of Professional Conduct and the State Board Rules of Professional Conduct, including definitions, interpretations and rulings, as they may be amended or changed from time to time by the AICPA and TSBPA. Where the wording of the AICPA and TSBPA rules pertain specifically to AICPA members and Texas licensees, the name of TSCPA and designation of TSCPA members should be substituted.

The definitions, rules, interpretations, and rulings of the AICPA and TSBPA shall be construed and applied by the Society in disciplinary proceedings conducted under authority of the Society's Bylaws. Both the AICPA and TSBPA rules will apply to all members of the Society. When AICPA and TSBPA rules are not identical, the TSCPA shall apply the rule(s), which, in its judgment, is (are) the more restrictive, even when apparent contradictions exist in the two sets of rules.

The Society reserves the right to promulgate additional rules of conduct if considered necessary. Such additional rules would be promulgated as amendments to the Bylaws under Article XV of the TSCPA Bylaws and would, therefore, be subject to TSCPA membership vote at an annual meeting or by mail as provided in Article XV.

APPLICABILITY OF RULES

The Code is a part of the Bylaws of the Society. The Bylaws provide that the Joint Trial Board may, after a hearing, impose sanctions on a member who is found guilty of infringing upon any of the provisions of the Society's Code of Professional Ethics. The Bylaws also provide that the Joint Trial Board may approve, without a hearing, sanctions agreed upon between a member and the Professional Ethics Committee. Sanctions may include a reprimand, suspension, resignation, expulsion, admonishment or the imposition of other sanctions considered appropriate by the Joint Trial Board in the circumstances.

Pronouncements could also be issued from time to time by the Professional Ethics Committee of the Society to provide guidelines as to the scope and application of the Code.

The Code was adopted by the Society's membership to provide guidance and rules to all members - those in public practice, in industry, in government, and in education - in performance of their professional responsibilities.

A member shall not permit others to carry out on the member's behalf, either with or without compensation, acts that, if carried out by the member, would place the member in violation of the Code.
