

TXCPA Houston Study Hall for CPA Candidates

Introduction

Welcome to the TXCPA Houston CPA Candidate study hall!

TXCPA Houston is opening its office space on certain dates for CPA Candidates to share knowledge, support each other on the path to success and tackle exam material.

Purpose of the Study Hall

Joining a study hall can provide accountability, support, motivation, diverse perspectives, and a deeper understanding of exam materials for you and your peers as you study for the CPA exam.

Benefits of Joining

- Collaborate with peers to share knowledge and strategies.
- Receive emotional support and motivation from like-minded individuals.
- Gain inspiration from special guests who have completed this journey and passed the CPA exam.

Study Group Format

Bring your own study materials to compare notes, ask questions, and exchange study tips with others in a quiet environment.

Next Steps

If questions, contact Kristie Ondracek - kondracek@txcpahouston.cpa

Frequently Asked Questions

Are study materials provided?

No. Bring your own materials to use and share with others.

How often will the study hall meet?

Twice a month most months

What is the format of the study group sessions?

Open study session

Space and drinks to be provided

Who is invited?

All who are studying for the CPA exam - you do not have to be a TXCPA member (candidate membership is available)

What is the cost?

Free

There's strength in numbers. Consider joining TXCPA Houston's CPA exam study group. Working together, you can conquer the CPA exam!